AMERICAN GUILD OF ORGANISTS—TWIN CITIES CHAPTER

October Organ Crawl

By Tom Ferry

Come join us on Saturday, October 20 from 9:00 am to noon for an organ crawl in St. Paul, no crawling necessary. The tour begins at 9:00 am at Unity Church, 732 Holly Avenue, viewing a 1964 Noack organ. Enter through the Holly and Grotto doors. We will also see the 1927 EM Skinner and 1963 Aeolian Skinner organs at the cathedral and then go over to the Louis Hill House, now a private residence, to see the Aeolian house organ. Bring your shoes and music, as after each organ is demonstrated, there will be an opportunity for us to try it out. □

Letters to the Editor

Signed Letters to the Editor are always welcome. Please send, fax or email letters to Barb Herzog.

Minnesota Public Radio encourages you to enter your classical musical performance events in the MPR online calendar. In the box in the upper left corner of the MPR main page <<http://www.mpr.org>>, click on 'Events Calendar'...then follow the instructions on the calendar page to 'submit a new event'.

This information will reach an audience different from the online TCAGO or PIPE-DREAMS calendars. It's free, and it's another way to let people know about your classical music concerts.

By all means, continue to send information directly to Michael Barone too... <mbarone@mpr.org>.

New Address, Phone or Email?

If your home address, phone or email address changes during the membership year, please call Barb Herzog at 952-432-6995 or email her at bmherzog@frontiernet.net to let her know of the change. In the past, members have changed their email contact information, and they did not receive notice of the monthly Pipenotes publication because it was sent to their old email address. It is not the Editor's job to keep track of email address changes. If you access Pipenotes each month online, it is YOUR responsibility to notify Barb of any changes in your address, phone or email. Thank you for your cooperation. □

Convention Corner - Choral Music at AGO 2008

Mark W. Kieffer, mkieffer@visi.com

One of the most frequently mentioned memories of the National AGO convention held in the Twin Cities in 1980 was the resident presence of the choir from St. Paul's Cathedral, London. Building on that success, it was decided to explore having them return for our 2008 convention. Therefore, we are excited to announce that the St. Paul's Choir, under the direction of their new music director, Mr. Andrew Carwood, will be in residence for two days of the convention. They will be presenting a full choral Matins and Evensong at St. Mary's Basilica and a full concert at the St. Paul Cathedral.

In addition to this spectacular internationally-known choir, we will have the opportunity to hear a number of the Twin Cities' own world-class choral ensembles. These include: The Singers, Rose Ensemble, Voices of Sepharad, Magnum Chorum, National Lutheran Choir, VocalEssence and the Minnesota Boychoir.

More information about all of these groups as well as many other convention details can be found on our convention website: www.ago2008.org. Check it out!

Dean's Column

Greetings to All,

Another Labor Day has come and gone bringing us to the portal of a new program year. As a church musician, I have had the chance to cross that portal 33 times. It is an amazing realization. Poet/photographer Gordon Parks says it is not time that passes so quickly, but we who pass so quickly through time. I hope for many more crossings, but obviously there are fewer seasons ahead than behind for the likes of me.

That is not the case for everyone in the TCAGO. How great it is to see the enthusiasm (and talent!) of our youngest board members. How good it is to see the membership committee reaching out to college students. How good it is to see the launch of the education committee's Pipeworks program into the public schools. How good it is for the TCAGO to sponsor a student competition.

It does behoove us individually to propagate our profession as well. There are so many pieces yet to be written, so much music yet to be played, so many liturgies yet to create, and so many ideas yet to explore. Here are some ideas you may want to try:

- 1) Bench Buddy – invite a child to sit on the bench with you each Sunday for a month.
- 2) Field Trips – bring a Sunday school class or youth group in for an up-close encounter with the vox dei. There are several engaging, age-appropriate compositions that explore the pipe organ in story and song, helping it become a vox populi.
- 3) Publicize the Barone Scholarship – There are two scholarships available yearly for qualifying junior or senior high students to study organ. These $500 awards will go a long way in providing lessons with a local teacher. Steve Gentile or Diana Lee Lucker would be glad to give you more information about the Barone scholarships.

Lastly, the board extends a big thank-you to Dee Ann Crossley for her time and dedicated efforts through many years coordinating the student competition. Dee Ann did a great job arranging competition venues and judges and communicating with students. Dee Ann has provided a smooth transition for Mary Newton as she assumes leadership of the competition. Welcome, Mary!

The MusicLink Foundation

The MusicLink Foundation is a non-profit organization with the mission of linking promising children in need with professional music teachers. Hundreds of music teachers across the country donate their time to teach music to one or several needy children at partial, or no cost, depending upon the situation of the child's family. MusicLink supports these teachers with instruments, free & reduced cost music and scholarship opportunities.

Currently, I have a donation of a beautiful Yamaha E-3 Electronic organ I would like to find a home for, preferably with a family that could never afford such an instrument or with an organization which does outreach to needy families. This organ has 2, 61-key manuals, 25 pedals, touch vibrato and a pre-set board.

If you could help me find a good placement for this organ, please let me know. Also, if you are teaching a student in need at a reduced rate, please contact me so I can let you know more about the MusicLink program, or visit our website at: www.musiclinkfoundation.org

by Michael Barone

Even as the autumn season settles upon us, the cultural scene in our Minnesota Twin will become quite warm during the first full week of November. The nine-day period between November 3rd through the 11th will boast a bounty of organ music activity...four concerts by an international array of soloists and four public-interface events where those artists will talk about their lives, offer tips to local students and share insights about the 'organ world.' All events are free and open to the public.

Under the title Piping Hot!, this mini-festival will be promoted by American Public Media's Pipedreams program as part of its 25th anniversary. Pipedreams host Michael Barone will serve as master-of-ceremonies for all events and also interview the players, talk with organ builders and demystify some of the 'arcana of organom.'

In conjunction with four local sponsors, the Piping Hot! festival includes concerts by Paul Jacobs of the Juilliard School (November 4, 7PM at Augustana Lutheran Church in West Saint Paul; organ by Glatter-Götz/Rosales); Hans Fagius of the Royal Danish Conservatory, Copenhagen (November 6, 8:15PM at the University of St. Thomas in Saint Paul; organ by Gabriel Kney); Stephen Tharp, international recitalist and recording artist (November 9, 7:30PM at Bethel University's

Each of these visiting artists also will appear in workshop/master-class settings at these four respective venues: Jacobs on November 3 (9:30AM-noon); Fagius on November 5 (7-9:30PM); Tharp and Robin on November 10 (Tharp 9:30AM-noon; Robin 1:30-4PM). These appearances are co-sponsored by the Twin Cities Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

If you would like to participate in any of the master-classes, please contact Michael Barone (mbarone@mpr.org; 651-290-1539) before October 15.

Conductor Debut

Lynn Trapp made his debut as conductor at Carnegie Hall, New York City, on June 19, 2007 conducting Te Deum by Otto Olsson (1879-1964) for chorus and orchestra.

A four-day residency at Carnegie arranged by MidAmerica Productions, Inc. gathered 175 singers from Minnesota, Texas, Kansas, Missouri and California for the performance under Trapp's baton. The New England Symphonic Ensemble joined the chorus on stage to accompany the work. Chorus members also sang excerpts of Te Deum for a nationally televised Mass at St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York on June 17.

The Minnesota Orchestra will open its third season of Close-to-Home concerts in Mahtomedi on Sunday, October 7 at 4:00 pm with Sibelius' Rakastava suite and Beethoven's Second Symphony. In addition, resident organist Bill Chouinard will solo with the orchestra in its first ever performance of the Allegro for Organ and Orchestra, Opus 81 by Alexandre Guilmant. To order general admission tickets, which are priced at $20 for adults and $10 for students and youth, call the St. Andrew's ticket office at 651-762-9138 or Minnesota Orchestra Ticket Services at 612-371-5656 or 800-292-4141, or visit the Orchestra's website, minnesotaorchestra.org.

On Tuesday, October 30 at 6:30 pm, Mr. Chouinard will present the third annual Tricks and Treats with the Mighty Organ. The performance, replete with special lighting and effects, is designed with young listeners in mind, and children are invited to come in costume and join in the costume parade to the "Jack O'Lantern Schottisch" by Max Braun. Also included will be works by Bach, Boellmann, Gounod, Grieg, Saint-Saens and Andrew Lloyd Webber, with transcriptions by W.T. Best, Lemare and Chouinard. Refreshments and treats for kids of all ages will be served after the brief program, and an offering will be received. St. Andrew's Lutheran Church, 900 Stillwater Road in Mahtomedi, is located about 1 mile north of Hwy. 36 on Hilton Trail, just east of the 694/35E (exit 52B) junction. Kemper was a prize winner in the Sherman Clay Piano Competition and in the First Coast Classical Competition (first prize). Of his performance in the Van Cliburn Competition, the Fort Worth Star said "the perfection was provided by Mr. Kemper" and the London Times said "extraordinary...in the blazing, trigger-happy Fugue from Barber's Piano Sonata".

Kemper is presently organist at Calvary Baptist Church, Roseville, accompanist for VocalEssence, and has sung professionally with the Minnesota Chorale. He has been accompanist and vocal coach at Bethel University, and has taught at Northwestern College, Saint Olaf College, and Transylvania University in Lexington, Kentucky. He is married to Kristen Kemper, violinist with the Minnesota Orchestra.

CELEBRATING 25 YEARS

Pipedreams®

A radio program for the king of instruments

SPREAD THE WORD. PROMOTE THE SHOW. SUPPORT PUBLIC RADIO

PROGRAM NO. 0740 10/07/2007

Helmut Walcha (1907-1991) – A Centenary Tribute......honoring a revered teacher and performer who made history with his authoritative and pioneering recordings of Bach's organ works.

As a result of a smallpox vaccination, Walcha had poor eyesight since childhood and was fully blind by sixteen. He learned new pieces by having musicians (including his mother in his childhood and his wife in later years), play for him four times (each hand separately, the pedal part separately, and the complete piece). Having perfect pitch, he would memorize the piece while listening.

Our program includes reflections from several former students, selections from the various Archiv Produktion recordings made between 1947 and 1971 (in Lübeck, Cappel, Alkmaar and Strassbourg), several of his original compositions played by Renata Meierjürgen, and an excerpt from his final recital at the Dreikönigskirche, Frankfurt.
